

Edward Hawkins

Heritage Consultant

BScEcn (Hons)

Edward is responsible for providing research to the London Wall Archaeology Team, working on a wide variety of projects at all scales of development nationwide. He has also successfully completed several Archaeological Desk Based Assessments.

Experience

Edward joined CGMS as an Archaeological Researcher in 2016 and is engaged in a wide variety of projects on an ongoing basis. Edward is primarily responsible for the research needs of the London Archaeology Team, though has also completed a number of Archaeological Desk Based Assessments.

Key Projects

Pinewood Court

McCarthy & Stone
Completed Research and Archaeological Desk Based Assessment for redevelopment of retirement facility.

Kingston University Turner and Townsend

Completed Research and Archaeological Desk Based Assessment for renovation of Kingston University, Knights Park Campus.

Silverdale Hall Calford Seaden

Completed Research and Archaeological Desk Based Assessment with a Built Heritage component for demolition and redevelopment of the site of Silverdale Hall, Sydenham.

Project Name Client

Insert 6 key projects with a short description of around three to four lines

Project Name Client

Insert 6 key projects with a short description of around three to four lines

Project Name Client

Insert 6 key projects with a short description of around three to four lines