Relevant Experience

A range of experience gained from working on various types of projects in private practice over a period of 7 years. This has included planning appraisals, the preparation, submission and management of planning applications and appeals. Alun has particular experience of negotiating S106 terms for a range of clients across residential and commercial sectors.

Project Examples

Alun has worked on projects for a wide variety of clients in particular with a number of housing associations, developers, house builders and retailers. These have included Sanctuary Housing Association, Genesis Housing, ASRA Housing Association, Goldcrest Homes, Waitrose Ltd and Tesco Stores Ltd.

Sanctuary Housing Association - Securing planning permission for a number of residential schemes including estate redevelopment and the re-use of key brownfield sites to provide much needed housing, particularly across Greater London - both through the application and planning appeal process.

Goldcrest Homes - Providing pre-acquisition advice and challenging S106 contributions where relevant. Securing planning permission for residential and mixed-use development on sites throughout the south-east. Also providing expertise regarding all aspects of the planning appeal process.

Tesco Stores - Providing planning advice and support for new food stores and extensions to existing food stores, also preparation of retail impact studies.
